

SC021 is a simple, secure and cost effective access controller with high security level.

SC021 doesn't require any software, which makes it extremely easy to use. SC021 only accepts encrypted wiegand signal of VF30 to ensure high security level. Furthermore, its anti-thunder, anti-static electricity, short-circuit protection function .

Simple setup for door-open privilege.

Two standard ports for fingerprint or card readers

Support dry contact signal output

Support 12V power supply for EM locks